College of Arts & Letters

Summer 2018 Study Abroad:

Mérida, Mexico

“Language, Culture and Society”

SPAN 302/342/499 (select two courses, for a total of 6 units)
Faculty leader: Professor José Mario Martín
Dates: July 5 - August 4, 2018 (tentative)
Price: TBD
Application deadline: March 15, 2018
Scholarship: Associated Students Study Abroad Scholarship

Learn More:

Attend an info session:
November 14 @ 12pm (AL 462)

To learn more, visit: calabroad.sdsu.edu.
Apply through Aztecs Abroad and search “Mérida, Mexico”.
For course questions, email: jmartinf@mail.sdsu.edu

Study the Spanish language immersed in the culture!
Join us this Summer 2018, in Mérida, Mexico, situated in the idyllic Mexican Yucatan Peninsula. We will explore several historic sites as well as beautiful Yucatan sceneries, including guided tours of Campeche, Chichen Itza, Cancún, Bacalar Lake, Haciendas and Cenotes. Students will get the chance to live with a Mexican host family, which also includes 3 meals a day.