

Join the Master's Program in Spanish

Department of Spanish and Portuguese

What can I do with a Master's in Spanish?

With a Master's in Spanish you can pursue a teaching career or work in business, academics, politics, social services and even national security. A Master's degree also prepares those interested in joining a Ph.D. program to become a university professor.

How many courses do I have to take?

You are required to take 10 courses that range from applied linguistics, teaching Spanish as a foreign language, Latin-American and Peninsular Spanish literature.

Can I study and work at the same time?

Graduate students are given the opportunity to work as Teaching Associates or as Graduate Assistants in the Spanish Department.

How do I apply to the program?

Visit <https://spanish.sdsu.edu/graduate/apply> and follow the steps to apply.
