

Master's in Spanish

Hepner Hall

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese offers a master's degree program for students interested in pursuing a teaching career in Spanish or continuing their studies in a doctoral program.

A total of 10 graduate courses are required that range from applied linguistics and teaching Spanish as a second language to Latin American and Peninsular literature. Graduates are also offered the opportunity to work as a Spanish Teaching Associate or a Graduate Assistant.

You will:

- 1 Study Spanish literature in social-historical contexts.
- 2 Master the essentials of Spanish linguistics.
- 3 Analyze literary texts with advanced approaches.
- 4 Critically examine bilingual contexts.
- 5 Elevate your teaching skills with modern methods.

APPLY FOR FALL
2026

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Graduate Advisor - Lauren Schmidt (lschmidt@sdsu.edu)

SPANISH.SDSU.EDU/GRADUATE

